.....On the right we pass the Yeoman's house which is a Tudor 15th century timber framed thatch.

Carry straight on and follow the road as it meanders through the village.

Bear right at Holy Cross church down a steepish hill towards Sutton. Drive through Sutton and bear right at the White Horse pub towards Petworth.

Continue along this road and turn left at the crossroads towards Duncton.

Continue to Burton Mill which is on the right, large pond on the left. Just past the Mill turn right into the car park which is not signposted but you will see it from the road. If the car park is full there is another just past the mill on the right.

Here for a tour of the mill at 11am taking about 1.5 to 2 hours depending on the number of questions we have. The owner of the mill is Barry Flannaghan.

I have booked a table for 12 at 1pm at the Foresters Arms in Graffham for Le club Clouseau after the tour. Anyone else wanting to lunch please make your own reservation. If the Foresters is fully booked the White Horse pub is just around the corner. Both pubs are dog friendly. Anyone dining at Graffham proceed as follows:

Leave car park and turn right with great care, blind corner to the right.

Continue to a T junction.

Take care turning left on the A285 towards Chichester. This is a fast road.

Take the first turning on the right towards Graffham and Selham.

Continue until the crossroads and turn left towards Graffham.

Continue into the village past the village shop to the Foresters Arms Inn on the left. Entrance to the car park just before the pub on the left.

Alternatively continue past the pub and take the next turning on the right. The White Horse pub is a short distance on the left.
